Ride to the Middle East Conflicts Wall Memorial

Marseilles, Illinois

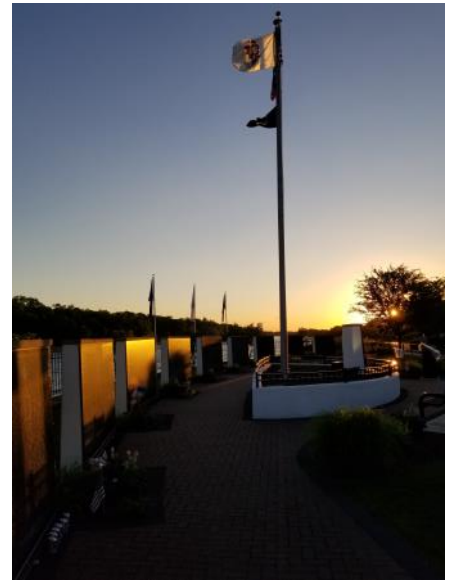

June 17 & 18th

4 members rode to Marseilles Illinois to participate in the Illinois Motorcycle Freedom Run. The weather was perfect for the trip and the turnout was good for the run. By the time the group was ready to leave the Grundy Fairground there were 600 to 700 motorcycles in the parking lot.

After we arrived Friday evening, we went out for supper and our Junior member Nate was presented with a nice coloring book with nice pink buck with crayons. Nate had a good time with the coloring book.

While at the restaurant, a Veteran came up and gave us two pomes that he wrote and wanted to share them with the membership. The two pomes are located on pages 11 through 15.

After supper, we rode down to the memorial to see the memorial at sunset. The picture to the right was taken before the sun went down and it was a beautiful site. Visiting the memorial in the evening is a peaceful time to go and it gives you more time to think about the 8,000 names listed on the wall.

Ed, who's handle is Breakdown, lived up to his handle. I think it was somewhere in Arizona when Ed's bike broke down with some brake issues and stranded him along the highway. Along came a guarding angel with a trailer that picked up Ed and his bike and took him to his home garage for repairs.

The issue turned out to be a simple fix and Ed was back on the road. Ed was able to catch up with the main body the next day.

On June 19th, Ed, Carla, and Chuck made it to the pier and the end of the trail. On June 29th, I received a text from Ed that he made it back home in Indiana.

I'm sure Ed, Carla and Chuck will have a lot of stories to tell about their trip. Glad to hear that you all made it back home safely.

VA dedicates new columbarium at Crown Hill National Cemetery

July 1, 2022

The Department of Veterans Affairs dedicated a new columbarium in Indianapolis, Indiana, allowing VA to conduct new interments of Veterans and eligible family members in the city for the first time since 1959.

VA Deputy Secretary Donald Remy and VA Under Secretary for Memorial Affairs Matt Quinn unveiled the dedication plaque for the cremains-only expansion to Crown Hill National Cemetery during a July 1 ceremony.

"This new facility will serve as a place of honored repose for Indiana Veterans for the next 100 years or more," Remy said. "We know Hoosiers have served our nation with dedication and courage since before Indiana even entered the union. It is only fitting we recognize their service and sacrifice with a lasting memorial like that at Crown Hill."

The columbarium, which will cover 15 acres of ground, is expected to serve a population of more than 250,000 Veterans, their spouses and eligible children within a 75-mile radius of Indianapolis. It is an annex to the nearby historic Crown Hill National Cemetery, which opened in 1866 and contains just over 2,000 gravesites on 2.5 acres.

The historic cemetery is located inside the boundaries of the privately-owned Crown Hill Cemetery. It reached full capacity and was closed to most interments in 1959, though subsequent interments of family members in the same gravesite have taken place since then.

Construction on the first phase of the columbarium began June 2021 at a cost of $15.75M and provides more than 3,400 above-ground columbarium niches for inurnments and space for more than 370 memorial plaques. Subsequent phases will be completed in coming decades until the final planned capacity of more than 36,000 niches is reached.

The Crown Hill columbarium is the second to be completed under the National Cemetery Administration's Urban Initiative program. The program improves access to Veteran burial benefits in certain urban areas through the construction of columbaria based on established criteria.
